

Drift at Volta New York - Special Project

AES+F, Kings of the Forest New York (Courtesy of Clair Oliver Gallery)

$DRIFT

Special Project - Elevators

Artists include: AES+F Group (RU), George Barber (UK), Victor Davydov (RU) Wai Kit Lam (CN), Masha Sha (RU), Alexander Shaburov (RU) Jemima Wyman (AU), Petra Lindholm (SE) Zer Gut group (RU)

Co-curated by Alisa Prudnikova (NCCA) and Lee Wells (IFAC)

Art Net Magazine Review by Ben Davis ARMORY ACTION

$DRIFT, investigates video artists navigating the psychological liberation and isolation brought about through new global cultural and technological advancements in the 21st century. $DRIFT is a video section preview to the upcoming exhibition In Transitions at the Russian National Centers for Contemporary Art in collaboration with NeMe.org. This special exhibition features an international program with a focus on artists based in the Ural region of the Russian Federation.

Alisa Priudnikova is an art theorist, curator, critic and the director of the Ekaterinburg Branch of the National Centre for Contemporary Arts (Russia).

Lee Wells is an artist, independent curator and director of the Brooklyn-based artist organization IFAC-arts and co-founder of Perpetual Art Machine.

Dates:

March 27th – March 30th, 2008

VIP Preview

Thursday, March 27th

11 a.m. - 1 p.m.

Public Hours Daily

Thursday - Sunday, March 27-30th

1 p.m. - 9 p.m. Address:

7W 34th Street

NY-10001 New York

VOLTA—the cutting-edge art fair that debuted in Basel - brings 53 international artists, 52 galleries and three special projects to New York during The Armory Week for its inaugural solo invitational exhibition, VOLTA NY, held at an extraordinary location off 5th Avenue, immediately opposite the Empire State Building.

info@voltashow.com

www.voltashow.com